5 million dollars of taxpayer money.

All tied up by Bonita springs based health drink company vr labs.

The company says its has a capital investment of $4.6 million dollars to date.

Lee county's attorney wants more.

telling nbc2 theyre requesting supporting documentation on the information provided in the report.

a spokesperson for vr labs is sticking to what's in here, Telling us-

Take ss

"As we reported to the Lee County Economic Development Office, VR Labs has continued its product development activities in Lee County. The company has been and continues to be in compliance under its First Incentive Program agreement with the county and will fulfill all of its obligations."

The report- acknowledges delays.

Blaming disputes with contractor GCM Contracting Solutions Inc and its subcontractors.

Sot Kevin jursinski, lawyer for GCM Contracting Solutions Our position is that GCM has done their job, has completed the work, and that's substantiated by the fact that lee county itself has issued a certificate of occupancy."

From the outside this plant does appear turnkey like the report says, but it's when you take a look inside that you realize something is missing."

Sot jursinski

"We're missing a Bottling line which my client does not manufacture but has paid $2.38 million dollars for, we paid for it but it hasn't been delivered."

That's the subject of a lawsuit going on right now between GCM and VR Labs CFO Kay Gow.

This- as the company says it has at all times and continues to be in compliance of its agreement with lee county.

on September 1st, their contract dictates they have to show they put 9 million dollars of their money toward job creation.

40 jobs that must exist by December 31.

Sot jursinski

We hope they do extremely well, we hope they open up and are a tremendous success because we would like to get paid."
